State Street Provisions — the latest from the Grafton Group, which runs busy Cambridge restaurants such as Park and Russell House Tavern — is slated to open in early December in the old City Landing and Sel de la Terre space at Long Wharf (255 State St. at Atlantic Avenue). Chef Tom Borgia, from Russell House, oversees a kitchen specializing in homemade breads, sausages, and preserves, a pickling program, and a raw bar. Fend off the cold with hot grogs that spotlight historically significant ingredients like smoked molasses and tea.
